About the Lowcountry Marine Mammal Network

LMMN is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit that works to protect marine mammals throughout coastal South Carolina through stranding response, scientific research and monitoring, conservation education, and community outreach. Our team works both on the water and in the community to better understand and protect local marine mammal populations while inspiring people to become better stewards of the coastal environment.

About the Fins and Flippers Fall Fundraiser

Get ready to dive into a night of fun, food, and fundraising and join us for a fin-tastic evening on Sunday, November 22, 2026, from 1-4 p.m. at Bowens Island Restaurant in Charleston, South Carolina.

Enjoy a Lowcountry boil, steamed oysters, fun raffles and live music. Ticket includes a Lowcountry boil meal, dessert, beer, wine and non-alcoholic beverages. (child's ticket includes beverage and kid-friendly meal).

Come together to mix and mingle with other ocean enthusiasts, marine life lovers, and seafood aficionados for a memorable evening.

Why Sponsor Fins and Flippers

Put your business in front of an engaged Lowcountry audience while supporting a cause that matters. Your sponsorship helps fuel LMMN's marine mammal response, research and education efforts throughout coastal South Carolina while providing meaningful visibility for your business before and during one of our favorite events of the year.

You will:

- Help protect dolphins and marine mammals through education and emergency response.
- Reach eco-conscious families, professionals, and wildlife lovers in the Lowcountry.
- Get visibility through email, social media, signage, and event shout-outs.
- Align your business with a trusted, science-driven nonprofit.

Our Reach:

- 4,250+ active email subscribers
- 70,450+ social media followers
- 200+ guests expected at Fins and Flippers (based on previous years' attendance)
- More than 77,000 individuals impacted by our programming since 2017
